

Kenneth R. Jackson

Retired Senior Vice President – SCANA Corporation

Mr. Jackson joined South Carolina Electric & Gas Company in 1978 and after more than 40 years of service, he recently retired from SCANA. Throughout his tenure, he served in various professional and leadership positions within SCE&G and SCANA, including the regulatory and accounting departments.

Before his retirement from SCANA, Mr. Jackson was responsible for the rates and regulatory functions, economic development and government affairs including federal, state and local government relations.

Mr. Jackson has been very active in the business community through his roles on the Charleston Economic Leadership Council, the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce Board, the Columbia Chamber of Commerce Board, the Lexington Chamber of Commerce Board, the South Carolina Manufacturers Alliance Board, and BIPEC. He also served on the board of the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Midlands and is very supportive of various non-profit organizations in the midlands.

Mr. Jackson was appointed to the SC Ports Authority Board by Governor McMaster in April 2017.

Mr. Jackson is a graduate of the University of South Carolina.